Technical failure policy for CEFC meetings conducted in hybrid format

In case of technical failure, the Zoom host will attempt to relaunch the software/hardware. After three unsuccessful launches, if the meeting has more than 20 minutes remaining, the Chair will adjourn the meeting and it will continue the following Friday. If the meeting has fewer than 20 minutes remaining at the time of technical failure, the Chair will adjourn the meeting and carry any unaddressed agenda items over to the subsequent month's CEFC meeting.
